Day 3 – 4th May Thursday

Tour to Castries Craft & Produce Market, The Castries Market and Vendor's Arcade is the largest open-air market in Castries, Saint Lucia. It is in the middle of the capital and has over 300 regular vendors and a hundred or more local sellers on market days. Pointe Seraphine for duty free shopping, lunch at local hut on the beach. Board a comfortable catamaran staffed by an expert crew as the sun sinks below the horizon. Watching the sky change color and enjoy a selection of heavy Hors d'oeuvre and beverages. After the elusive 'green flash', the moment right after the sun slips below the waterline, head back to the harbor.

Hotel: Bay Gardens Beach Resort & Spa Lunch: Pink House Plantation
Dinner: on Cruise

Day 4 – 5th May Friday

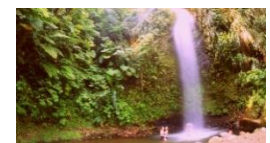

Embassy, Agricultural Demonstration Team Farm visit, Mango picking. After lunch take a boat ride for Sea Moss tour. Sea Moss is rich in amino acids, vitamin C, antioxidants, antiviral and antimicrobial agents. These can help the body to fight off and prevent infections. Sea Moss is also a great expectorant meaning it helps to expel built-up mucus from the lungs, making it great for healing coughs and other respiratory issues. Embassy & Agricultural Demonstration Team visit. Dinner & happy time at the Gros Islet Friday Night Street Party.

Hotel: Bay Gardens Beach Resort & Spa Lunch: Flavors of the grill Dinner: Gros islet

Day 5 – 6th May Saturday

Soufriere-Sea & Sea Tour – Take a Private Catamaran to Soufriere and then drive around Soufriere to Sulphur Springs Park for a tour of the Volcano and time spent at the mud baths. Soufriere is a laid-back town located in the southwest of St. Lucia Island. Discover a geothermally active area with enormous volcanic peaks, hot springs, and Mineral baths. Lunch and tour at Morne Coubari an 18th century plantation and visit the Toraille Waterfalls. Visit the beautiful beach and snorkel while enjoying the views of the Pitons. The Gros Piton and the Petit Piton are two giant volcanoes also know as the Twin Pitons. The striking corn-shaped mountains located south of Soufriere are a UNESCO site.
